

In light of Father's Day, all the children prepared a gift for their dads.

We taught the children that it's not only today that they show appreciation to their fathers, but that everyday is an opportunity to do so as a parent's love is unconditional and always will be!

