

Our annual visit to Farmworld Funworld in Bushy went very well.

All five branches came together and enjoyed seeing the animals, having a picnic and then released their energy in the Funworld after!

Here's some pictures of children having close encounters with reptiles, seeing peacocks and feeding goats.

