

This week the children at Christchurch Kindergarten @ Gange visited Wealdstone library.

On the way to the Wealdstone Centre, the teachers taught the children about road safety. Once they got to the centre, the children chose books of their choice and adults read stories from them.

Children enjoyed their time at the centre, taking part in singing sessions at the library as well as having fun with colouring books. Great day out!

